COMMITMENT & AVAILABILITY

1. Board members are expected to attend regular meetings (monthly on the third Tuesday) and participate in committee work. Are you able to commit to these expectations?

Yes, I can commit to regular meetings and committee work.

No, I may have limitations with my availability. (Explain, below)

2. The Oscar Hammerstein Museum and Theatre Education Center Board of Directors is a "working board." This means that all board members are expected to give a minimum of 6 hours per month towards the mission of the non-profit. (This includes regular board meetings and committee meetings.) How many hours per month do you believe you can commit towards this cause?

3. The annual financial contribution required from board members is $100, to be made in the form of either a $100 cash contribution or by securing a $100 donation from someone else. No contribution credit shall be given for in-kind donations. Please initial that you can commit to the required financial obligation.
